ORANGEBURG, S. C., JUNE 27, 1879.

Mr. Ed. Slater lost a fine mule on Wednesday from colic.

A man owes his success in his life work to the woman who walks beside him. Truer words were never uttered.

We learn that Mr. J. F. Robinson has a plenty of watermelons 1 1/2 feet in length. This is ahead of any thing we have heard of yet.

In another column will be found the official proceedings of the Democratic Convention, which met at the Fair Building on last Saturday.

SINCE the rise in the river, the rafts, so long blocked up above town, have been broken loose and are now passing down on their way to market.

MASTER Henry Holman placed us under many obligations on Saturday last for a few beautiful June apples. They were fine and of the best flavor.

MESSRS. D. E. Smoak & Co. have recently had built a refrigerator to keep their lager beer cool these sultry days. It was constructed by Mr. F. M. Kimmey.

AN Orangeburg drummer, professing to be in the cat business, was offering 50 cents to $1.00 per head, and when a supply was brought he went back on his business and denied his identity.

We are glad to be able to report Mr. John Inabinet, who has been so seriously ill, as convalescing rapidly, and great hopes are entertained by his friends, of his final recovery.

A little friend of ours not to be outdone brought us a large fine peach yesterday, which came out of his father's garden. Shall we promised not to tell who that little friend was and we don't intend to.

We are requested to state that the merchants of Orangeburg have generally agreed to close up their stores on the coming Fourth of July, it being a public holiday. Persons living out of town will please take notice.

THAT genial drummer, Mr. W. H. Terry, representing the Drug House of Brown & Brother, Baltimore, is in town taking orders of our druggists. This house does a large business not only here but throughout the South.

THE sweetest thing on earth is a little child when it has learned to know and love. They are our sentiments. A girl child, for instance, who is pretty, fascinating and sweet tempered, and who is not over twenty years of age.

ON Sunday night last the dwelling and kitchen of Mr. Frank Brickie were entirely destroyed by fire. Mr. Brickie had barely time to get his family to a place of safety before the house fell in. The burning is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

It is reported, by persons coming to town, that all the branches in the lower portion of the county are dry, and travellers meet with difficulty in finding watering places for their horses. We trust the rains will soon fall and supply the needs of man and beast.

A letter written and mailed from Charleston inviting a friend in Orangeburg to attend a banquet to be given in the city on the 13th of June, was received here on the 21st. Can the connection be made in time and whose fault was it the Postmaster's or the Railroad's?

THE turpentine farms around town are in full blast. This season of the year with this business is as busy as September and October with the cotton planter. We notice several wagons passing through the streets on their way to the depot with barrels of spirits.

OFFICE hours on Sunday at Dr. Wannamaker's Drug Store from 8 to 10 A. M., and from 1 1/2 to 8 1/2 P. M. In case of emergency access can be had to the Drug Store any time during the day or night.

THE annual exhibition of Sheridan's School will be held in the Court House this evening, (Friday 27). The exercises will begin at 8 1/2 o'clock sharp, and visitors are requested to be in the room by that hour. The public are earnestly and cordially invited to attend.

MR. G. D. Sellers left at our office on Wednesday several very fine peaches which he informed us came from the orchard of Maj. J. W. Sellers, of St. Matthews. They were large and luscious. These are the first we have seen this year of our county's growth.

THE horse of Mr. L. R. Beckwith, while standing hitched last Saturday to his buggy, became frightened and ran out of Mr. J. C. Pike's yard across the Court House Square, and smashed the buggy in pieces against a tree. Unfortunately Mr. Beckwith was in the store or might have prevented the accident.

OUR thanks are due Mrs. Wm. Wilcocks for as fine a mass of Irish potatoes as we have had the good fortune to enjoy this season. They were large and when cooked presented that nearly appearance which is characteristic of the best varieties only. This was a sample of a fine crop raised by Mrs. Wilcocks.

WE are glad to see that work on the new street between Judge Glover and Mr. Austin Bull's residences has commenced. In a short time this important work will be completed and the street opened for travel. Having already a street denominated Glover street we would suggest the name of "Bull" street for this one.

FROM several sections of the county we hear the crops are suffering for rain and if the needed seasons are not had in a few days, the yield of both cotton and corn will be short. We trust the latter rains will come in copious showers and the reasonable expectations of our farmers will be fully realized. A refreshing shower fell on Wednesday evening.

WE call the attention of our readers to the new goods received by that enterprising firm of Sorentrac & Loren. These gentlemen are gradually and surely winning their way in public favor by selling reliable goods and as cheap as any firm in town. Illuminators are a specialty and certainly demand attention in these days of lamp explosions. Remember Mr. Master's brick building and give them a call.

IN company with Mr. G. D. Sellers, and behind one of his fast trotters, we paid a visit to Dr. J. H. Pooser's place to witness the operations of a new motive power which he has invented. It worked satisfactory to our eye, and seems to be a good thing. We will publish a full account of the machine in a future issue. We return our thanks to Mr. Sellers for the delightful drive he gave us, but think "Dick" came back most too fast for safety.

A grand excursion train will pass this place for Charleston this evening at 6 o'clock. The fare is put down at $1.50 for the round trip from Orangeburg. This includes a sail around Charleston harbor, beginning at three o'clock Saturday evening.

THERE will also be a grand excursion of the colored Baptists to Branchville, on June 28, 29 and 30. Tickets good to return for three days from Orangeburg will be sold at 50 cents.

WE are due Mr. D. E. Smoak many thanks for a can of his choice Ham Sausage Meat. To us this was a treat of rare enjoyment and for that reason so much the more appreciated. Mr. Smoak has on hand every variety of Canned goods and at rates remarkably cheap, also everything in the line of family Groceries just suited to this trade. Our readers, during the summer months, will do well to give him a call and try his Canned goods.

ASSURANT.—We are in receipt of a copy of this thrilling story in pamphlet form by Messrs. Rindard & Dawson, proprietors of the News & Courier. The get-up of the book is all that could be desired by the friends of the gifted author, the type is the same as that used in the News & Courier and the printing plain and distinct. Those who have not read this story or desire to preserve it in a more convenient form will do well to purchase a copy at once. It will be furnished through the Post Office free of postage at 25 cents per copy.

POMONA GRANGE, No. 17.—The next quarterly meeting of the Pomona Grange will be held at the hall of Washington Grange on Saturday, July 5th. Subordinate Granges are urged to send full delegations, as the meeting will be a very important one to the order. Secretaries and Masters are particularly enjoined to discharge their duty by making reports as required. KIRK ROBINSON, Secretary P. G., No. 17.

THE examination of the classes of Sheridan's School ended yesterday. These exercises were thorough in every branch and was alike satisfactory to the numerous visitors in attendance and creditable to the students themselves. The exhibition, as published elsewhere, will take place in the Court Room to-night, where we expect additional laurels will be won by the students. After the year's work we wish them a happy vacation and a cheerful return to duty next September.

WE copy the following from the Columbia Register of the 19th instant: "The exercises of the Misses Martin's High School for Girls closed on the 18th for the summer holidays. Miss Emilie O. Scoville, of Orangeburg, having completed the course of study prescribed by the school, received the graduate's medal, bearing the motto of the school, Festina Lente. Miss Scoville graduated with distinction, and we extend to her our hearty congratulations on the success she has attained.

THE executive committee of the Orangeburg Teachers' Institute will meet at the Court House on next Monday, the 30th of June, to make arrangement for the July meeting of the Institute which will be held on the second Saturday of July in the Court Room. The members and teachers in the county will please remember the date and place of meeting and let there be a full attendance. These meetings may be made to result in great good to the profession if the teachers will take hold of them in the proper spirit and especially in this needed in the infancy of the Institute.

LOVE'S LAMENT.—From Ludden & Bates' Southern Music House, Savannah, Ga., we receive as their latest publication a charming ballad by John L. Hardee, of Savannah, which we deem worthy of more than passing notice. Words of tender, but not foolish, sentiment expressing a lover's regrets that not for him again can bloom "love's passion flowers" linked to a melody that is in itself a lament over a "dream that is done," form a well nigh perfect song. Mr. Hardee has written successful songs, but this is conceded to be his best yet. The publishers will mail it postpaid on receipt of Thirty Cents, or it can be had from any Music Dealer.

"Ike" writes to know if it is any harm to compliment a lady. We answer, no. To pay a compliment is to tell the truth, and to tell it as though you meant it. And the only way to do that is to mean it. If a young lady is pretty or accomplished; if she plays well, or sings well, or talks well; if, in a word, she pleases; why in the name of common sense, shouldn't she be told of it? Don't blurt it out before everybody. That will only serve to make her feel uncomfortable and you appear ridiculous. Say it quietly when opportunity offers, but say it strongly. Convey the idea distinctly and fully, so that there may be no mistake about it.

ANOTHER large consignment of Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, &c., received at the popular Cheap Store of Mr. C. D. Kortjohn on Thursday. We copy from his invoice a few articles by permission. Call early and secure bargains, or you will be told: "We are just out." Follow our advice and avoid disappointment. Among the numerous articles we make special note of Gents', Ladies and Children's Shoes, Gents', Ladies and Children's Hats, Summer Clothing, Dusters, Suspenders, Hosiery, Ladies and Gents' Undervests, Corsets, Hamburg Edging, Swiss Embroidery and Insertions, Combs and Brushes, Hair Oil, Machine Oil, Extracts, Towels, Shirts, Dress Goods, Cottonades, Tweeds, Jeans, Parasols, Fans, Price's Grenadine, Gents' Cravats and Hosiery, Toilet Soaps, Historical and Poetical Works, Family Bibles, Pen, Ink, Paper, Envelopes, Linen and Paper Collars, Accordions, Tumblers, Goblets, Glass Sets, Lemon Squeezers, Knife Boxes, Rolling Pins, Horse Blankets, Alarm Clocks, Plated Knives, Forks, Armlets, Spoons, Pocket Knives, Revolvers, Garters, &c. After reading this paper go at once and avoid the rush.

THE Democratic Convention. The assemblage was called to order by Malcolm I. Browning, Esq., County Chairman, who read an address, which will be published in the next issue of the DEMOCRAT. The County Chairman then stated that he would organize the Convention by making up its roll prima facie and then the Convention would elect its own officers, and requested Mr. John L. Heidtman, Secretary of the Executive Committee, to act as temporary Secretary to make up the roll. The Secretary then called the names of the clubs in alphabetical order, and the following delegates were found to be present:

Amelia—W. T. Rives and W. T. C. Bates. Branchville—F. W. Fair and A. F. H. Dukes. Congaree—F. M. Puckett, H. C. Pauling and M. L. Herlong. Caw-Caw—T. J. P. Walsh and O. B. Riley. Cow Castle—W. B. Elizabeth Club not having elected delegates the gentlemen named above as its delegates being present were on motion of Gen. Izlar seated as delegates from that club.

The County Chairman then announced that the roll was made up, a quorum of the Convention was present, twenty-two clubs being represented and sixty-four delegates present, and that the Convention was ready to proceed to the election of its permanent officers. Mr. Fowles nominated Hon. S. Dibble for President of the Convention. Mr. Dibble declined and moved that Malcolm I. Browning, Esq., County Chairman, be elected President of the Convention. Seconded, and Mr. Browning then requested Gen. Jas. F. Izlar to assume the chair temporarily. Gen. Izlar took the chair and put the motion and Mr. Browning, County Chairman, was unanimously elected President of the Convention. On taking the Chair, Mr. Browning in a few remarks, thanked the Convention for the compliment conferred.

On motion of Gen. Izlar, Col. A. D. Goodwyn and Dr. J. W. Summers were elected Vice-Presidents, and Mr. J. L. Heidtman Secretary. The President then had the call for the Convention read by the Secretary. The President then stated that the business before the Convention was the election of persons to be suggested as the choice of the Democratic Party to be appointed to the offices of Probate Judge and one County Commissioner, from and after the expiration of the terms of C. B. Glover, Esq., Probate Judge, and N. N. Hayden, Esq., County Commissioner, until the next general election in 1880.

On motion it was resolved that the election for appointee to office of Probate Judge as above be proceeded with and that the election be by ballot, and that the President appoint two tellers to conduct to election. The President appointed Messrs. T. C. Albergoti and W. C. Mitchell to act as tellers. Mr. W. J. DeTreville nominated C. B. Glover, Esq., for Probate Judge. Mr. A. C. Norton nominated W. L. Glaze, Mr. W. C. Mitchell nominated Jos. F. Robinson. Mr. Norton withdrew the name of W. L. Glaze in favor of Jos. F. Robinson. Nominations then closed and the election was had. The President then announced the result, as furnished by the tellers, as follows:

Number of votes cast.....64 Of which C. B. Glover received.....38 And Jos. F. Robinson.....25 And blank.....1 Total.....64

And that C. B. Glover, Esq., was duly elected as the choice of this Convention to be recommended for appointment to the said office.

On motion it was resolved that the same rule and same tellers be adopted for holding the election for appointee for County Commissioner.

Mr. N. N. Hayden was the only one nominated, and it was resolved that he be elected by acclamation. And Mr. N. N. Hayden was so elected, and the President so announced.

The President then called attention to so much of the County Chairman's address as requested this Convention to fill vacancies on the County Executive Committee. The Secretary called the names of the clubs, and the following names of members of that Committee were furnished by the respective delegations:

Amelia—Dr. W. T. C. Bates. Branchville—To be filled. Congaree—F. M. Prickett. Caw-Caw—T. J. P. Walsh. Cow Castle—Dr. D. E. Connor. Edisto—Andrew Myers. Elizabeth—J. W. Hodges. Fort Motte—Col. A. D. Dr. W. T. C. Bates, who had been elected by Amelia Club, as its member of the County Executive Committee, in place of F. M. Wannamaker, Esq., resigned, was confirmed by the vote of the Convention.

The President requested the delegates from Branchville and Liberty Clubs, and all other clubs in which there are vacancies to have them filled, and names of committee sent to Mr. Heidtman, Secretary of Executive Committee. On motion the Convention then adjourned sine die.

MALCOLM I. BROWNING, President.

J. L. HEIDTMAN, Secretary.
